Frank Walter

Antigua e Barbuda, 1926 - 2009

Frank Walter's paintings are integral to his polymathic oeuvre, spanning poetry, opera, political and theoretical texts, and sculpture. In this group of small-scale landscapes and abstractions, trees and the physical world are depicted through tactile, agile brushstrokes, forming a compendium of dissolving, unstable vistas. The artist painted with the means at hand, and his small formats allowed him to work outdoors, in transit or the palm of his hand, as if taking notes. Walter is currently the subject of an exhibition highlighting the interplay between environmental observation and philosophical speculation in his oeuvre at London's Garden Museum.

As pinturas de Frank Walter são parte integral de sua obra polimática, que abrange poesia, ópera, textos políticos e teóricos e escultura. Neste grupo de paisagens e abstrações em pequena escala, as árvores e o mundo físico são retratados por meio de pinceladas táteis e ágeis, formando um compêndio de vistas instáveis que parecem em vias de dissolução. O artista pintava com os meios disponíveis e os seus pequenos formatos permitiam-lhe trabalhar ao ar livre, em trânsito ou na palma da mão, como se tomasse notas. Walter é atualmente assunto de uma exposição que destaca a interação entre a observação ambiental e a especulação filosófica em sua obra no Garden Museum de Londres.
